

■ Training Courses:

■ Cruise Industry & General Port Security

Curaçao Ports Authority is hosting the 16th Caribbean Shipping Executive Conference in Curaçao on May 8 – 10, 2017. As a courtesy, Caribbean Shipping Association is offering 2 days of training courses which will be conducted by De Ruyter Training & Consultancy.

Course 1: CRUISE INDUSTRY TRAINING:

With 448 ocean going cruise ships and a demand of 25 million passengers in 2017, an expected growth of the fleet in the next 10 years with 80 ships and 231,000 berth, the cruise industry is the fastest growing sector in the tourism industry. Today the cruise industry's focus is on brands and experience like fun, sun, nature, adventure and culture cruises.

Therefore the cruise-ports have to bring their passenger services in line with the desired cruise experience. In a one-day seminar the major topics in servicing the cruise industry as a port of call will be discussed.

Date: Thursday May 11, 2017
Time: 8:30 am – 4:00 pm
Location: Ballroom 3rd floor at Renaissance Curacao Resort & Casino
Participation: Free, light lunch included

Course 2: GENERAL PORT SECURITY

All assets in a port must be protected against terrorist attacks and criminal activities. How do we organize and control security in a port in such a way that all activities can proceed without delay? This requires a certain degree of security awareness for all people working in the shipping industry and knowledge on how to report security incidents to the pertaining authorities.

In a one-day seminar the major topics in port security will be discussed.

Date: Friday May 12, 2017
Time: 8:30 am – 4:00 pm
Location: Ballroom 3rd floor at Renaissance Curacao Resort & Casino
Participation: Free, light lunch included

For more information please contact Mr. J. Stegmeijer at +599 9462-6722

To register please send an email to: cura@drtc.nl

Deadline to register Friday May 5, 2017